

DEREK MINUS

Mediation & Arbitration Practice

Derek Minus is a barrister-at-law and a dispute resolution specialist.

He has been approved by the NSW Bar Association as an Arbitrator, appointed to the list of District Court arbitrators for 2011/12, the list of Local Court arbitrators for 2010/11, approved as an Expert Determiner, re-accredited as a Mediator and appointed to the NSW Supreme Court list and the District Court list of mediators for 2011/12.

Derek is internationally qualified as a Fellow of The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators by both arbitration and mediation and holds Panel Appointment Certificates as a mediator and chartered arbitrator. He is the former President of Australian Branch of the Chartered Institute.

An advanced and Accredited Mediator since 1992, he has conducted well over 1,000 mediations and conciliations for government panels and private matters involving contractual, workers compensation, building, franchising, family relationship, patent and property disputes.

A Chartered Arbitrator since 2002, he has worked as a part-time member of the New South Wales Local Court, District Court, Consumer Trader and Tenancy Tribunal and Workers Compensation Commission, conducting thousands of hearings and delivering hundreds of awards.

Derek is an expert in the conduct of combined mediation/arbitration processes available under the NSW Commercial Arbitration Act 2010. His aim is to use collaborative strategies to help people achieve not just the settlement of their dispute, but the transformation of their conflict.
